Modern – a characteristic of present and recent time; contemporary; not antiquated or obsolete. This Blok home is the very definition of both the homes that Don Sandeman services and the style and level of service he exudes. With a unique take on the sales and marketing process, a sincere passion for the craft, a commitment to service and integrity, and a highly educated approach to real estate, you can be assured that Don Sandeman will supersede the expectation set forth in an agent. A truly modern and well designed home is rare, so too are those skilled enough to market them.

A MODERN APPROACH TO REAL ESTATE

02

The adage “Jack of all trades and Master of none” certainly does not apply here. Don has embraced the fact that what he knows and loves is real estate. He has partnered up with top members from their respective industries to ensure that your home’s marketing and presentation is exceptional. Professional marketing collateral, top-notch staging consultations, and second-to-none photography, ensures the uniqueness of your home is presented and its most exceptional features emphasized.

A UNIQUE ANGLE ON SALES & MARKETING

Don Sandeman shares the vision of what a home should be and is committed to working with products that he firmly believes in. Good design is timeless. Whether it is your home, the sleek lines of an Aimes recliner, or that of a 1970's gull wing Mercedes 300SL, good design should be appreciated and admired for the elements that make it truly unique. Continuous education and a dedication to emerging himself in anything design and architecture related means that he can offer you the best advice from renovating through to furnishing.

A SINCERE PASSION FOR THE CRAFT

04

Knowledge is power. In order to make an educated real estate decision you must have the necessary market information and comparable data. Don's no pressure approach to sales and emphasis on information and education means you can rest assured, knowing priority is placed on servicing the needs of his client. He works in partnership with his clients, incorporating their goals into his marketing plan and strategy. Communication is paramount and Don ensures his clients are always in the know.

A COMMITMENT TO SERVICE & INTEGRITY

Kaizen, the Japanese word for "improvement" or "change for the better" refers to a philosophy and practice that focuses upon continuous improvement. This is the vision and model that Don Sandeman incorporates into his business. Continuously researching and educating himself on the latest trends and technologies with regards to home building and design, Don is able to portray to both buyers and sellers the aspects of a home that are integral to good design and also its longevity.
